Description

Historic farming estate with guesthouses for sale Monsaraz, Evora, Portugal

Fully restored farmhouse with guesthouses for sale in Monsaraz, Evora

In the heart of Portugal's famous wine district, the Alentejo, an amazing eighteenth-century "monte" (a typical Alentejo farming estate), recently restored to its original state maintaining period materials where possible.

It has excellent finishes, now offering modern comforts like central floor heating, thermal insulation and air conditioning.

Surrounded by extensive vineyards, an ancient olive grove, vegetable plots and orchards, the 1.5 hectares estate has a total living space of 1.125 m².

Currently operating as a Manor Guest House/Boutique hotel, it consists of a main house and five separate farm houses with a total of 6 living rooms, 15 bedrooms, 13 bathrooms, five kitchens, a library, 2 swimming pools and beautiful gardens.

The unique charm of this property will not lose anything when turned into a large family property.

This is a real haven of peace where you can enjoy a magnificent view over the medieval village of Monsaraz, savor the regional cuisine, go on walking or bicycle tours, visit prehistoric monuments, discover neighboring villages or, enjoy the beauty of the lakes formed by the waters of Alqueva.

Located only 45km from the city of Evora, it is the ideal place for those seeking the tranquility that only country living can offer.
